

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

Invites you to celebrate

Asian Pacific American Heritage Month

Join us May 12, 2014

Info Session and Application Workshop: “Getting a Job with the State of Illinois”

9:00 am –11:00 am

James R. Thompson Center (JRTC) Hearing Room 16-503

(arrive early and bring ID—you will have to go through security to access 16th floor)

Community Resource Fair

9:00am to 3:00 pm JRTC (100 W. Randolph) North Atrium

Featuring:

Compassionate Care Network

Chinese American Museum of Chicago

Governor’s Office of New Americans

Korean American Women in Need (KAN –WIN)

Asians with Disabilities Outreach Project Think-Tank (ADOPT)

Asian American Business Expo

Illinois Department of Human Rights

Illinois Department of Employment Security

Hamdard Center

Illinois Department of Children and Family Services

Cultural Awareness Workshops for Illinois State Employees:

1:00 An Overview of the South Asian American Community (JRTC 9-031)

1:00 and 2:00 Who are the Sikhs? Basics on a community’s history & beliefs (JRTC 9-039)

2:00 Asian American History and Community Characteristics (JRTC 9-031)

3:00 IL Asian American State Employees Assoc. Professional Development (JRTC 9-031)

4:00 Networking Reception (Location TBA)

Register at this link here (click here).

All events are free and open to the public

For questions, contact Theresa Mah (312) 507-9283 or email theresa.mah@illinois.gov